Family Supports for Children with Disabilities

New Brunswick - Nouveau-Brunswick

Click for More Information

Ministry:

Social Development

Eligibility:

Eligibility for the program looks beyond the child's disability to examine all relevant factors that affect the child's ability to participate in society.

In order to be eligible for the program, a family must have identified unmet needs as a result of raising a child with a disability. The child with a disability must:

- have a severe disability that is life long and significantly limits a child's ability to function in normal daily living. This includes children with medically complex conditions, physical disabilities, and/or intellectual impairment who may or may not have behavioural and/or emotional difficulties.

For additional information click links above and below.

Description:

Family Supports for Children with Disabilities is a voluntary program that provides social work support and financial resources to families to assist with the care and support required to meet the special developmental needs of their child with disability. Services are intended to strengthen families and support parents in caring for their children.
